

Lexington Society.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., March 31.—Rev. J. O. Knott, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church of Lexington, is attending the annual meeting of the Baltimore Conference, M. E. Church, South, now in session at Cumberland, Md. In his absence, Rev. Dr. James A. Quarles, of Washington and Lee University, will occupy his pulpit Sunday morning.

Mrs. Emma A. Whitmore has returned to her home on Kerr's Creek, Rockbridge county, after a visit of two months to her daughter, Mrs. Elliott R. Bookner, of Farmville.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Alstyne, of Old Chatham, N. Y., spent several days in Lexington this week, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Enbret.

Rev. Thomas B. Southall, pastor of the Lexington Presbyterian Church, is spending the week in Baltimore. He will return for his Sunday service.

Mrs. John L. Campbell has found it necessary, in consequence of ill health, to resign the presidency of the Rockbridge School Improvement League.

Mr. L. L. Wilson, of Upshur county, W. Va., has arrived in Lexington with his family, and they are now occupying their residence on Taylor Street, which Mr. Wilson recently bought.

Mrs. Lauriston Sale and Miss Bertie Sale, of Dillard City, are in Lexington visiting the family of Professor Martin J. Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shannon, who spent the winter in Augusta county, have returned to their home in Lexington.

Dr. James Lewis Howe of the department of chemistry of Washington and Lee University, is absent on a trip to Pittsburgh county, in scientific research on minerals funds.

Mr. B. Mercer Hartman, of Roanoke, spent several days here the past week as a guest of his brother, Dr. John H. Hartman.

Mr. L. P. Thompson left Lexington a few days ago for West Branch, Iowa, where he expects to make his home.

The Lexington Golf Club have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: W. S. Hopkins, president; F. H. Brockenbrough, vice-president; H. C. Wise, secretary and treasurer.

FREDERICKSBURG

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 31.—Mrs. Maude Gandy, Secretary of Richmond, is a guest of Miss Annie G. Willis.

Miss Mary Prout, a student at Vassar College, is spending her spring vacation here with her great aunt, Mrs. C. L. Kalmbach.

Superintendent G. G. Joyce, of Accommack, was here this week.

Miss Ethel Werth, was a guest here this week of Miss Elizabeth Hurkamp.

Mr. M. G. Willis, Jr., has returned to Richmond College after spending a few days with his parents here.

Mrs. Mary Quinn Hicks has returned from a visit to Mrs. A. D. Alexander at Urbanna.

Mrs. T. Perry Myers, of Washington, has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Wheeler.

Mrs. A. B. Yates and Mrs. A. W. Embrey, have returned from a visit to Washington.

Mrs. A. P. Rows and children have returned from a visit of several weeks to relatives at Irvington, and now has as guest, Miss Peary Steele, of Irvington.

Captain W. L. Messick and Mr. L. H. Irving, of Irvington, are here visiting relatives.

Messrs. Irving Messick and Harry Waters, of Irvington, were visitors here for several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gouldman, Jr., and Miss Ruby Smith, of Irvington, spent several days here this week, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. B. Meredith, of Salem, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. C.蒙古。

Miss Raymonde Virginia Cutler, of Savannah, Ga., is visiting Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Morton in Spotsylvania county.

STAUNTON, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., March 31.—Miss Sarah Greenlee Frost, and Miss Marchand, of the Mary Baldwin Seminary, are charming hostesses of the Beverly Manor Chapter, Daughters American Revolution.

Afternoon at the Seminary. The parlors were beautifully decorated with a profusion of bridesmaid and Mareschel nell roses. The occasion was the monthly literary meeting of the chapter. Miss Mary Duvad had charge of the programme, and she gave an interesting account and growth of Washington and Lee University.

She closed the exercise by reading an article on the Stuarts, after which refreshments were served.

A merry crowd of young ladies and gentlemen gathered at the home of Miss Nettie Myrtle Wednesday evening to show their esteem for their friend, Miss Nettie, who left for Harrisburg, where she has accepted a position. After many pleasant hours of refreshments were served, some of those present were Misses Grace Baylor, Annie Weaver, Lizzie Irene, Louise Hensel, Ollie Cox, Florence Tribby, Vivian Lohr, Roberta Gray; and Misses A. A. Arnold, J. Hall, P. Arnold, J. A. Shelley, C. G. Corbin, P. Patterson, W. E. Kirby, M. E. James, H. H. Link, and Mr. W. P. Carson and wife, of Washington.

Messrs. Larmer and Sutliff of this city has been awarded the contract by the government to furnish crushed stone for macadamizing the road from Staunton to the Federal Cemetery, which is about two miles, or over.

Miss Bessie Yawter left Thursday for Columbia, S. C., where she will take a three years course at Columbia Hospital

The Emblem of Superior Pianos

In Selecting the

Mason and Hamlin Piano

the purchaser has the satisfaction of knowing that an instrument has been chosen that in every feature—every detail of its manufacture—has been subordinated to quality.

The Mason & Hamlin Piano is Not a Cheap Piano

but the high standard of excellence, combined in its manufacture makes it an economical purchase. In the Mason & Hamlin Piano you have the dignity and aristocratic design of case, not the flashy carved imitation.

The matchless purity of tone, sweet singing and not wanting in volume, though it has been tempered to the beautiful soft, sweet melodies that ring in one's ears like the soothing strains of the harp.

Every part of the Mason & Hamlin Piano is protected by patent.

Write for descriptive booklet.

The Cable Company

Richmond, Va. J. G. Corley, Manager.

MISS MARY MONTAGUE SMITH.

Miss Mary Montague Smith is the beautiful daughter of Mr. E. F. Smith, ex-sheriff of Montgomery county, now holding a responsible office. He belongs to a family noted for its wealth and prominence, and owns a beautiful country home near Christiansburg, Va.

Miss Mary is tall and graceful, with dark brown hair and eyes and a brilliant complexion, is quite a belle and social favorite. She was a student at Randolph-Macon College at Danville for several sessions, and is an artist of much promise.

The Federal Cemetery, which is about two miles, or over.

Miss Bessie Yawter left Thursday for Columbia, S. C., where she will take a three years course at Columbia Hospital to become a trained nurse.

Rev. H. T. Heironimus has returned to Staunton and will have charge of Sears Hill Church.

Tazewell Society.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TAZEWELL, VA., March 31.—The Virginia Polytechnic Institute Glee Club, of Blacksburg, gave a very creditable entertainment in the High School chapel here to-night. The entertainment was under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, and was well patronized.

John L. Fitz, one of the leading citizens of Coeburn, Wise county, was in town this week. He owns valuable coal lands on Mountain Run in the neighborhood of the new railroad.

Mr. Edward Herbert, of High Point, N.C., was in town this week. He was a former resident of this county.

Mrs. A. B. Buchanan left on Wednesday for Richmond, where she will undergo treatment for rheumatism at the Memorial Hospital. She has suffered greatly recently, and it is the hope of her friends that her stay in Richmond will benefit her.

Mr. Robert Tartar, who lives at Five Oaks, had four ovens which dropped fourteen inches this season, two dropping four each, and two three each. This is said to be something out of the ordinary.

Mr. T. L. Shuffelbarger, secretary of the Clear Fork Telephone Company, was in the city this week. Mr. Shuffelbarger, in company with Rev. William H. Kelley, has organized a telephone company on Cave Creek.

Sam Sargent who broke into the depot at Cedar Bluff last Sunday night and took money and whiskey in full, here having been captured in this town.

Major R. R. Henry, who has been ill at his home here for several weeks, is very much improved.

CREWE SOCIAL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CREWE, VA., March 31.—The young people of the Christian Church have a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott Thursday evening. The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church have an ice cream social the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pond and little son, Everett, have returned from a visit to Mrs. Pond's sister, Mrs. Linwood Slade of Norfolk.

Miss Alice Baird, of Charlotte, N. C., is visiting Miss Pearl Davis. She has been spending the winter in Washington and other points North.

Mr. Edward Bradshaw has accepted position here in the Norfolk and Western dispatcher's office, as chief clerk for Superintendent Elton, and will move his family here from Roanoke at once.

Rev. S. H. Morton of the Christian Church, left to-day for his new charge, in Danville.

Mr. W. Sale of Lynchburg, has accepted a position in the Norfolk and Western office here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Berry and son, of Boston, left this week, after a visit of some days to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Berry.

Mr. P. G. Berry, who has been sick for some time, went to Richmond last week to consult a specialist. He was accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. J. J. Wilson.

Frances, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morton, has been extremely ill, but is now somewhat better.

WILMINGTON NC

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, NC., March 31.—One of the most interesting events to society the past week was the marriage of Miss Kate Street Galloway, daughter of Dr. W. C. Galloway, to Mr. Charles R. Yopp, son of Alderman and Mrs. W. H. Yopp; the wedding occurring at the home of the bride's father, No. 111 North Fourth Street, Tuesday night at nine o'clock. The ceremony was a decidedly pretty, homely event and was performed by the aid of friends by Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of Grace Methodist Church. Mr. D. N. Chadwick, Jr., a college mate of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony a reception and dance was given in the splendid Odd Fellow's Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ranken returned to their home in Lockport, N. Y., Thursday, after a visit to the former's mother in this city. Mr. Ranken, is a brother of Mrs. Henry M. Flager.

Another popular visitor to leave this week, was Captain T. F. Schley, Twenty-third Infantry, United States Army, who left to resume the annual inspection of the companies of the North Carolina National Guard. Captain Schley is the son of Admiral Schley, and while here was the guest of his friend, Captain J. Yun B. Metts.

Charming Wilmington visitors at present, are Misses Jessie Quillen and Miss Egle Moore, of Philadelphia, the two young ladies coming from Baltimore here on the ship of the former's father.

Messrs. Charles Dushan D. L. Latta and W. C. Von Glahn, Jr., are back from attending the Young Men's Christian Association Convention in Charleston, S. C.

A delightful affair of the week was a festival given at the home of Mr. J. E. Smith, in honor of the Baraga Class of the Second Advent Church, this city.

CHARLES CITY FOLKS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MALVERN HILL, March 31.—Miss Venus Carter of "The Mill," has returned to her home after spending several weeks with her friend, Miss Emilie Armstrong, of East Cary Street, Richmond.

Mrs. H. S. Saunders, who has been in Richmond some time, has returned to her home "Upper Shirley."

Miss Nelle Braxton, of Richmond, will be with her friend, Miss Venna Carter until after Easter.

Mr. Hill Carter, of "High Hills," has been running his saw mill full force this winter, and has more orders than he can fill; he is now busy getting out the lumber for a large barn for Mr. Richard Epp, which he proposes having built this summer at his home on "Epp's Island."

Mr. H. Greeley, of "Westbury," is also preparing to build a large barn and strawshed this summer, Mrs. Carter furnishing the lumber, etc.

Mr. Russell, of "Malvern Hill," has received his duties for the summer from Miss Margaret S. Clark, of "Hart's Corner," on the James.

Miss Virginia Buffon, of "The Mill," spent several days this week with her friend, Miss Margaret S. Clark, of "Hart's Corner," on the James.

Mr. G. M. Walker, road overseer, in Charles City, has his men busy this week repairing the roads in the upper part of the county, where they are in very bad condition. Mr. Walker is spending several days with his friend, Mr. Beverly R. Carter, of "The Mill."

The choir of Grace Church, Granville, will meet for practice Friday evening with Mrs. William Johnson, of Granville. Miss Mollie Watkins, of "Glendale," spent some time this week with her sister, Mrs. William Johnson, of Granville.

PEOPLES IN CAROLINE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOWLING GREEN, VA., March 31.—Mr. W. M. Morrissey, Gravatt, now of Blackstone, spent several days with his grand-parents.

The desire for liquor is soon destroyed after Orrine treatment is commenced, and before long the patient is freed from the terrible drink craving, and the drink will not be missed.

It is in this way that Orrine cures the craving for liquor.

Orrine is the strength needed, thus destroying the desire for liquor.

Orrine eradicates every particle of the terrible liquor craving, imparts new strength and vigor to the whole system, and restores the general health.

Orrine is in two forms—No. 1, a secret remedy, absolutely tasteless and odorless, which can be given in food or drink without the patient's knowledge.

"In the three years that we have edge; No. 2, in pill form, for those who wish to be cured. The price of either form is $1.00 a box. Send to Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., for free booklet.

The desire for liquor is soon destroyed after Orrine treatment is commenced, and before long the patient is freed from the terrible drink craving, and the drink will not be missed.

It is in this way that Orrine cures the craving for liquor.

Orrine is the strength needed, thus destroying the desire for liquor.

Orrine eradicates every particle of the terrible liquor craving, imparts new strength and vigor to the whole system, and restores the general health.

Orrine is in two forms—No. 1, a secret remedy, absolutely tasteless and odorless, which can be given in food or drink without the patient's knowl-

WESTERN ASSURANCE COMPANY OF TORONTO.

ANNUAL STATEMENT FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1906, OF THE COMPANY ASSUMED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA MADE TO THE AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA, IN PURSUANCE TO THE LAWS OF VIRGINIA.

President—JUON, GEO. A. CO. Secretary—OFFICE, 120 KINGSTON STREET, EAST TORONTO. General Agent in Virginia, JULIUS STRAUSS; residence, RICHMOND, VA. Organized or Incorporated, AUGUST, 1861 commenced business, AUGUST, 1861.

ASSETS.—Loans on parities (fully recorded and being the first items on the face simple) upon which not more than one year's interest is due $15,000.00

BONDS AND STOCKS OWNED ABSOLUTELY BY THE COMPANY.

Per Value Market Value.

U. S. per cent registered bonds.....$6,350.00 $5,320.00

U. S. per cent registered bonds.....$6,000.00 $6,021.00

City of Columbus (Ohio) bonds, 4½ per cent.....$5,000.00 $5,